

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE.

For a number of years, I have as occasion offered, collected data in regard to the branch of the CONOVER family to which I belong, intending as opportunity arose to amplify it and put it in presentable form.

This little book is the result. The accumulation and verification of the material has been a pleasant work, and I hope it may prove of interest to my children and their descendants.

CHARLES HOPKINS CONOVER.

CHAPTER I.
THE FIRST FOUR GENERATIONS OF THE FAMILY IN AMERICA.

T H E C O N O V E R F A M I L Y

1. WOLFERT GERRETSEN VAN COUWENHOVEN, or Wolphert Gerritse Van Couwenhoven, son of Gerrit, as the middle name of Gerrit or Gerret, with the suffix "se" or "sen" denotes, ancestor of all persons in America bearing the name of Conover, or, as it has been variously spelled, Kouwenhoven, Kovenhoven, Covenhoven, Couwenhoven and Covenor, emigrated to America, to that section then called New Netherlands, now New York State, in 1630, and settled with other hardy and courageous colonists at Rensselaerwyck, near Albany, then Fort Orange, where he held a very important position, that of Superintendent or Manager of Farms for the Patroon. He later removed to New Amsterdam, now New York City, where he cultivated the "Bouwery," or "Farm No. 6," in the company's employ.

The old Dutch records show that he was one of the Burghers of New Amsterdam in 1657.

Wolfert Gerretsen Van Couwenhoven was from Couwenhoven, a little village or hamlet a short distance Northwest of Amersfoort, in the Province of Utrecht, in the Netherlands. This is shown by the "Van," which precedes Couwenhoven in his name. Historians claim, however, that he was born in Amersfoort, or Eemsfort, an ancient city, the name of which is derived from the River Eem, on which it is located. This city, which in 1841 contained twelve thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine inhabitants, was formerly surrounded by a wall with twenty embattled towers which were destroyed in 1829.

On the 16th day of June, 1636, Wolfert Gerretsen and Andries Hudden bought from the Indians and obtained from Governor Van Twiller, on the 6th day of June, 1637, a Patent for the "Westernmost of the three flats on Long Island, commonly known as the little flats," and called by them Castuteeuw, or Kaskateuw, which Patent was ratified on the 22nd day of August, 1658; to which premises Wolfert Gerretsen removed, and on which he immediately commenced a settlement, and where he died in 1662.

On "July 26th, 1638, Andries Hudden sold to Gerret Wolferson (son of Wolfert Gerretsen), fifty morgens of (land, or) his one-half of the district of Achtervelt, Long Island, for fifty-two gallons of Hollands, which he owed Gerret."

On "August 2nd, 1639, Wolfert purchased of Hudden his interest in a house, barrack, barn and garden on said Patent, called 'Achtervelt,' and, September 16, 1647, he purchased of Hudden all his interest, not previously disposed of, in the original Patent."

"These buildings, erected prior to July 9th, 1638, and testified on the 22nd of March, 1639, by Gillis Pietersen Van de Gouw to have been built by himself and the Company's carpenters, were of the following dimensions: the house 26 feet long, 22 feet wide, 40 feet deep, including a small chamber at the side, with the roof covered above and around with plank, and having two lofts above one another, and also being set around with long palisades; the barn 40 feet long, 18 feet wide, and 24 feet deep, all Dutch measure; a bergh with five posts 40 feet long."

"The following is a copy of the inventory of the chattels on the farm July 9th, 1638":

"Three milch cows, 1 yearling cow, 1 young calf, 2 old mares, 1 mare of one year old, 1 new wagon, and appurtenances, 1 iron harrow, 1 heifer of two years old, 2 old oxen, 1 young do., 1 stallion of three years, 1 gelding of four years old, 1 wheel plow and appurtenance, some farming utensils necessary for the bouwery."

"Also about sixteen morgens of land sowed with summer and winter wheat, and a garden stocked with a quantity of fruit trees; 1 yawl with appurtenance."

T H E C O N O V E R F A M I L Y

"Wolfert Gerretsen's heirs conveyed, 25th of March, 1666, the main portion of these premises to Elbert Elbertse Stoothoff."

"The settlement was first named New Amersfoort, in honor of the place of Wolfert's nativity; afterwards commonly known as the Baai, or Bay, and since as Flatlands."

"On March 18, 1647, Cornellis Jacobson Stille obtained a Patent for Bouwery No. 6, previously occupied by Wolfert Gerretsen Van Couwenhoven, containing twenty-eight and a half morgens on Manhattan Island."

"It lay along the present south side of Chatham Square, coming down to Pearl Street, and was known as Bouwery No. 6."

"On April 27, 1662, Elbert Elbertse Stoothoff purchased of the Executors of Wolfert Gerretsen Van Couwenhoven and his heirs, for five thousand guilders, in good, strong 'wompom,' payable in four years, one-fourth in each year, the lands and farm, with improvements thereon, 'known by the name of Achtervelt,' which the said Wolfert possessed; said lands being the premises which Andries Hudden and Wolfert Gerretsen Van Couwenhoven purchased of the Indians, and which are described as the 'Westernmost of the three flats named Kaskuteuw, lying on the island named by the Indians Suanhachy, between the Bay of the North River and the East River; in breadth from a certain meadow, or valley, and stretching about westerly to, and into the woods; which lands were patented to them by Governor Wouter Van Twiller, 16th of June, 1636, and by a confirmatory Patent of 22nd of August, 1658, granted by Governor Stuyvesant to said Wolfert Gerretsen Van Couwenhoven."

"Elbert Elbertse Stoothoff obtained, 1st of November, 1667, from Governor Nicolls, a confirmatory Patent for the above premises, and as per recorded Deeds, was in possession at the time of his death of at least six hundred acres of upland in Flatlands, being the largest landholder in the place.”

“There is no Patent for land on Long Island of an earlier date than that to Andries Hudden and Wolfert Gerretsen Van Couwenhoven; and from papers among the descendants of Elbert Elbertse Stoothoff, it is evident that farm buildings were erected on the premises covered by the Patent prior to its date, showing an earlier occupation than 1636.”

In the “Bergen Genealogy,” its author states—

“It may be possible that Wolfert Gerritse, the ancestor of the Couwenhovens of this country, was of noble origin, but if he was, it is certain that he, like most of his companions, had not much of this world’s goods to boast of, or he would not have taken the situation of Overseer or Superintendent of the Patroon’s farms at Rensselaerwyck.”

The following is a facsimile of the signature of the common ancestor of the Couwenhoven or Conover family in this country:

mark

In volume I. N. Y. Col. Doc. pp. 191, 193, the name is found printed as follows:

This is the mark A of WOLFERT GERRITSE.

This is the mark Z of WOLFERT GERRITSEN.

T H E C O N O V E R F A M I L Y

To the compiler of this work it is not known that claims of noble blood were ever made for Wolfert Gerretsen. It is believed that this remark of Mr. Bergen was called forth by the perfectly legitimate claim to and use of armorial bearings by the Conover Family. Now, the right to bear arms is not a proof of noble descent, but merely an hereditary privilege bestowed upon the descendants of any man of the rank of gentleman or higher on whom a grant of arms was made.

The situation of Superintendent of Farms for the Patroon was an highly important office and would not have been given to a man whose position in life had not accustomed him to command and to the handling of business affairs.

Wolfert had five sons, none of whose birth dates are exactly known. The births occurred between 1610 and 1620, however, and an approximate date has been given to each in this work in the order in which they are supposed to have been born.

Issue:

2. GERRET WOLFERSEN COUWENHOVEN, born circa 1610.
3. Jacob Wolfersen Couwenhoven, born circa 1612.
4. Derick Wolfersen Couwenhoven, born circa 1613.
5. Peter Wolfersen Couwenhoven, born circa 1614.
6. Jan Wolfersen Couwenhoven, born circa 1616.

2. GERRET WOLFERSEN COUWENHOVEN, eldest son of Wolfert or Wolphert Gerretsen Van Couwenhoven, No. 1, was born in Holland about 1610, and removed to America with his father and brothers in 1630. He settled in Flatlands, Long Island, known during his occupancy of that section as New Amersfoort, Nassau Island, Kings County. His position here was that of the most prominent man in the settlement, he being the magistrate.

T H E C O N O V E R F A M I L Y

He married Altie Cornelius, daughter of Cornelius Lambertse Cool and his wife, Altieu Brackhonge. On her husband's demise Altieu Cool married William Bredenbent; and her daughter, Altie Couwenhoven, after the death of Gerret, in 1645, married Elbert Elbertse Stoothoff. Cornelius Lambertse Cool was of Gowanus, Kings County, New York, where he purchased land in 1639.

"In the year 1643, Gerret Wolfersen Couwenhoven, with others, signed a petition to Governor Kneift, of New Amsterdam, for leave to attack the Mareckkawich, or Brooklyn Indians, a branch of the Canarisie tribe. The Director, however, in consequence of the Indians having become peaceable, wisely refused to grant their request, but gave permission that 'in case they evince a hostile disposition, every man must do his best to defend himself.' "

"The Patent to Gerret Wolfersen Couwenhoven, of March 11, 1647, describes land lying at Recheweck—the Indian name of Brooklyn—both the Maize and the Woodland on the marsh of the Gowanus Kill, between the land of Jacob Stoffelsen and Frederick Lubbertsen, extending from the aforesaid Marsh till into the woods next the lands of said Frederick Lubbertsen till to the land of Andries Hudden; northeast by north a little northerly one hundred and forty-eight rods; behind through the woods till to the land of the aforesaid Jacob Stoffelsen, southeast by east eighty rods, next the land of Jacob Stoffelsen aforesaid, till to the aforesaid marsh southwest a little westerly, one hundred and sixty-five rods; along the valley to the place of beginning sixty rods, with a small projecting point, amounting in all to nineteen morgens and three hundred and forty-one rods."

"This plot evidently pointed on the main road leading from Flatbush and the village of Brooklyn to the Ferry, extending back to the Gowanus Creek, and is included in the plot designated as land of G. Martense on Butt's map of Brooklyn."

7. WILLEM, OR WILLIAM GERRETSE COUWENHOVEN, born at Flatlands, 1636.
8. Jan or John Gerretse Couwenhoven, born at Flatlands, 1639.
9. Neeltie Gerretse Couwenhoven, born at Flatlands, September 20, 1641. She married, 1660, Roelof Martense Schenck, of Flatlands, and died there in 1672. See record of Schenck family.
10. Marretje Gerretse Couwenhoven, born at Flatlands, 1643. Was baptized April 10, 1644. Married in Flatlands, Coert Stephense Van Voorhees. Died before 1709.

The following disposition was made of the estate of Gerret Wolfersen Couwenhoven:—

“In 1646, after his marriage to the widow of Gerret Wolfertse Van Couwenhoven, by an agreement with the guardian of Gerret Wolfertse’s children, Elbert Elbertse Stoothoff took the whole of Gerret’s estate, consisting of one hundred and twenty-three morgens of land on the southerly end of the ‘Westernmost of the three flats known by the Indian name of Kaskutew,’ on condition of paying the debts, and bringing up and educating Gerret’s children to read and write.”

“When of age or married, Elbert was to pay said children as follows:—

Willem Gerretse, 200 Carolus Guilders.

Jan Gerretse, 300 Carolus Guilders, he being allowed 100 more than his brother, because of not being in good health and weak in the limbs.

Neeltjie Gerretse, 200 Carolus Guilders.

Marretje Gerretse, 200 Carolus Guilders.”

T H E C O N O V E R F A M I L Y

"From an entry in Elbert's books it appears that on the 14th of June, 1683, after the death of his second wife, Altie Cornelis or Cornelius, he agreed to pay on the following 21st of December, to said Jan Gerretse, the sum of 2,000 guilders, in full for his share of the said Altie, his mother's, estate."

Gerrit's name is found printed as follows in New York Colonial Documents:

GERRIT WOLPHERTSE, WOLPHERTSEN, WOLFFERSEN.

This is the mark  of GERRIT WOLPHERTS.

This is the mark  of GERRIT WOLFFERSEN.

Made by himself.

7. WILLEM or WILLIAM GERRETSE COUWENHOVEN, eldest son of Gerret Wolfersen Couwenhoven, No. 2, was born in Flatlands, Long Island, in 1636. He married, first, in 1660, Altie, daughter of Joris Dirksen Brinkerhoff, who died June 3, 1663, and, second, February 12, 1665, Jannetie, daughter of Peter Monfoort, Monfort or Monford.

Pieter or Peter Monfoort, the common ancestor of the family in this country emigrated at an early period from the Netherlands. He married, January 12, or 17, 1630, Sarah de Plancken (or Blank) at Amsterdam, Holland, prior to his emigration, who, after his death, married, second, Lambert Janse Bosch. Peter died January 4, 1661.

On May 29, 1641, he obtained a patent for a plantation at the Wallabout on which he resided, and for which he obtained a confirmatory grant or patent on August 17, 1643, in which the quantity of land is given as 25 morgens.

T H E C O N O V E R F A M I L Y

He was a magistrate in 1658 and a Deacon in the church at the time of his death, which occurred in January, 1661.

It was Peter Monfort's eldest child who married William. The records show that her name was Janica, Jannetje or Jannetie Peellers, or Peters, Monfort and that she was baptized May 12, 1646. The marriage record styles William "William Gerritse Van Couwenhoven."

William Gerretse Couwenhoven resided for a number of years in Brooklyn, where he was magistrate in 1661, 1662 and 1664, and a Deacon of the Dutch Reformed Church in 1663. From Brooklyn he removed to Flatlands, where his name appears in the Assessment Lists of 1675, 1683, and 1693. He was also an elder in the Dutch Reformed Church in Flatlands in 1677.

In 1690, on November 1st, he sold his farm at Flatlands to his son William, and repaired to Monmouth County, New Jersey, where he passed his remaining years surrounded by ten of his children, dying at an advanced age, as he was still alive in 1727.

Of his children, thirteen in number, only three, Gerret, William and Altie, remained on Long Island.

"April 23, 1701, William Couwenhoven, and Jonica, his wife—with others—as heirs at law, for 150 pounds sterling, conveyed Jan Monfort's Patent to Garret Couwenhoven, as per deed."

"From proceedings before the public authorities (see Vol. IV., pages 183 and 184, of O'Callaghan's translation of 'Dutch Manuscripts') on the 6th of July, 1644, in relation to an Englishman named 'John Windwodt,' (probably Wentworth) a soldier who was accidentally shot in the house of Gerret Wolfersen Couwenhoven, during an affray, by Thomas Mabs, also a soldier, it appears that Gerret resided in a clapboard house, situated on the flats where a garrison was stationed (for protection against the Indians); that his father, Wolfert, had a house near by surrounded by a stockade, and that 'Ambrosious Lonnen' also had one, and there 'may have been others, forming a hamlet or village.'

THE ANCESTORS OF NEELTJE SCHENCK, ANCESTRESS OF THE COMPILER OF THIS WORK. NEELTJE WAS THE DAUGHTER OF ROELOF MARTENSE SCHENCK AND WIFE OF

“The Schenck family claims a remote antiquity and traces its descent through the Barons of Toutenberg to A. D. 330. The family is said to have derived its name from Edgar de Schwencken, chief butler to Charlemagne, Emperor of Germany and France, who, about 798 A. D., granted to Edgar a title of nobility and assigned him a coat of arms.”

“Coming down through the centuries we find Christian Schenck, whose descendants were known as Schenck Van Nydeck from the town of Nydeggan on the river Roer eighteen miles east of Aix la Chapelle. Among these was General Peter Schenck Van Nydeck, the progenitor of those bearing the name in America.”

The Pedigree.

1. Reynier Schenck, Baron van Toutenberg, cup bearer to Count Van Julich, residing at Nydeggan Castle.
2. Christianus Schenck, his son.
3. Wilthelmus, son of Christianus, died previous to A. D. 1292. He married Mechtildis, who died in 1271. In 1275, Wilthelmus was Justice of the Peace.

8. Derick, his son, was born in 1485. He married Maria Van Galen, and had—
9. Dederick, who was born in 1507. He married Anna Van Berlaer. His son—
10. General Peter Schenck Van Nydeck was born at Goch, Holland, A. D. 1547. He was a brother of Sir Martis Schenck, an active partizan of the Revolution in Holland, brave, courageous and daring, who was drowned through the weight of his armour while conducting an attack by water on the city of Nymegen in 1589. General Peter Schenck married, May 17, 1580, Johanna Scherpenziel, by whom he had a son—
11. Martin Peterson Schenck, born at Doesberg, in the Province of Guilderland, Holland, A. D. 1584, who was the father of Roeloff, Jan and Annetje Martense Schenck, who came to America in 1650.
12. Roeloff Martense Schenck was born at Doesberg, Province of Guilderland, Holland, in 1620, and died at Flatlands, New York, in 1705. He came to America in 1650 and was among the first enrolled as a member of the Church.

On January 29, 1661, he obtained a Patent of lands at Flatlands, Long Island. He was a leading man in the community, being several times Justice of the Peace and once a Judge.

He was appointed by Governor Lusler, Captain of Cavalry of Kings County. In 1660, he married Neeltje Gerretsen Van Couwenhoven. She died in 1672, and in 1675 he married Annetje Peterse Wyckoff. She died in 1686, and on October 30, 1688, he married Catrina Crequers, widow of Scoffel Hoodlandt. His eighth child

13. Neeltje Roelofse Schenck, who was born January 23, 1681, and died July 27, 1751. On October 2, 1701, she married Albert Willemse, son of William Gerretse Couwenhoven. Albert is No. 18 in the Conover Genealogy.

CHAPTER III.
JAN ALBERTSE COVENHOVEN (No. 34) AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

T H E C O N O V E R F A M I L Y

34. JAN or JOHN ALBERTSE COVENHOVEN, eleventh child of Albert Willemse Covenhoven, No. 18, was born February 18, 1723. He married, October 19, 1744, Catherine, daughter of Hendrick Van Voorhees and Jannetje Jansen, who died August 4, 1794. John was born in Freehold Township, New Jersey, and that he was living there in 1753 is shown by the following record in the register of the Old Tennant Church:

"John Cowenhoven, son of Albert, had baptized David, March 4, 1753."

In his will, which appears in the appendix of this work, Jan calls himself "John Covenhoven," and gives his residence as "Somerset County, Province of East New Jersey," and mentions two children—

36. David Conover, baptized March 4, 1753.

37. JOHN CONOVER, born February 1, 1760; died September 9, 1812.

37. JOHN CONOVER, second son of John Albertse Covenhoven, No. 34, was born February 1, 1760, in Freehold Township. He married, May 30, 1782, Martha Higgins, who was born August 28, 1762, and died February 25, 1833. John died September 9, 1812. John undoubtedly lived in Somerset County with his father, and as there was no land owned by the Conover family in Hunterdon County prior to 1800, and as the Higgins family were large property holders near Copper Hill in that County, it was through Martha Higgins that John removed to that section. In the office of the Secretary of State (No. 2524) is the "Inventory of the Estate of John Covenhoven, Late of Hunterdon County" (for a copy of which document see appendix) filed December 8, 1812.

SOME OLD HOLLAND NAMES AND THEIR ENGLISH EQUIVALENTS.

The period during which America was settled was not an era noted for education, and the majority of our early ancestors could neither read nor write. This was not the case with the poorer class alone, but among the wealthy people as well. Owing to this fact there was no fixed orthography for proper names, which is very confusing to genealogists of to-day who are not familiar with the Dutch language.

For the benefit of future students of family history, the following list of Dutch baptismal names with their English equivalents has been appended to this work, only after careful study of the subject and many comparisons with various shorter lists by other compilers.

It should be noted that carelessness in regard to proper names was not a fault of our colonists only, for the great Voltaire, in addressing his correspondence to a certain noted German Countess with whom he was very friendly, spelled her name in no less than ten different ways.

The suffix "je" added to a male name changes it to female.
